

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Graduate Program on International Dispute Resolution
(IDR) Master of Laws (LL.M.)

Prof. Dr. Jörg Risse

"Dispute resolution is a growth industry. And helping to resolve dispute is a fascinating job. Two great reasons to join the IDR-master program of the Humboldt-University."

Current Professional Activity:

Partner of Baker & McKenzie
Honorary Professor at the University of Mannheim

Education / Professional Career:

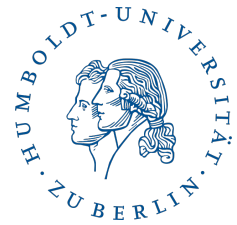

Jörg Risse studied at the University of Heidelberg where he earned his doctorate in 1997. In the same year, he completed his postgraduate studies for "Master of Laws" at the University of California at Berkeley (Boalt Hall). He is admitted to the bars of Germany and New York.

Professional Emphases:

Jörg Risse represents his clients in international arbitration proceedings, with a focus on large infrastructure projects (power plants, airports, offshore wind farms, mass transport) and post m & a disputes (warranty claims, price adjustment proceedings, liability of transaction advisors)

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Graduate Program on International Dispute Resolution
(IDR) Master of Laws (LL.M.)

Arbitral Experience:

Jörg Risse is widely recognized as one of the leading arbitration practitioners in Germany, inter alia by reference guides such as Chambers Global, Legal 500 or Juve. According to Chambers he is also one of the "most in demand" arbitrators in Germany.

Languages:

Jörg Risse is fluent in German and English.