

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Graduate Program on International Dispute Resolution
(IDR) Master of Laws (LL.M.)

Dr. Markus Burianski

“Winning cases is mostly a matter of identifying and presenting the evidence. I am delighted to share this view with young practitioners in the framework of a truly international master program.”

Current Professional Activity:

Markus Burianski is responsible for international arbitration and cross-border litigation within White & Case Germany.

Education / Professional Career:

Dr jur, University of Cologne, 2003
Second State Exam, Higher Regional Court of Cologne, 2003
LLM, University of Hull, 2000
First State Exam, University of Cologne, 1999

Professional Emphases:

Markus Burianski specializes in disputes relating to supply contracts, liability issues, energy law and post M&A matters. In addition, he advises clients on matters related to force majeure.

Selected Arbitral Experience:

Oil & gas consortium
Successful representation of an oil & gas consortium in an ICC arbitration against an Arab state. The amount in dispute was approx. USD 195 million;

Leading Taiwanese solar cell manufacturer

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Graduate Program on International Dispute Resolution
(IDR) Master of Laws (LL.M.)

Advising the client in a multi-million Dollar ICC arbitration relating to the enforcement of price adjustment of a long-term supply contract. The governing law is German law as well as CISG;

Germany-based technology company

Advising the client in a SIAC arbitration against two Chinese defendants regarding the performance of a purchase contract. The dispute value is approx. EUR 85 million.

Languages:

German, English, French